

Thomas J. Rodgers, GSP EHS Specialist

Summary of Qualifications

- Completed over 25 asbestos building surveys
- Conducted air monitoring for over 25 asbestos abatements
- Completed over 100 evaluations on ergonomics and safety of sanitation laborers
- Managed sanitation employee training on safe lifting
- Conducted workplace inspections throughout buildings in the Philadelphia area
- Developed and implemented Emergency Information Sheets for buildings in Streets Department

Professional Certifications/Associations

- Graduate Safety Practitioner (GSP); Board of Certified Safety Professionals
- Member, American Industrial Hygiene Association
- New York State Department of Labor Certification, Asbestos Inspector and Project Monitor
- Pennsylvania Asbestos Inspector
- OSHA 30 Hour Construction Safety Training
- HAZWOPER 40 Hour Site Worker Course

Professional Highlights

COLDEN CORPORATION

Working out of Colden's Philadelphia area office, Mr. Rodgers delivers safety assessments, air monitoring, and asbestos management services to clients. Mr. Rodgers provides respiratory protection training and testing for a large pharmaceutical client.

THE CITY OF PHILADELPHIA STREETS DEPARTMENT

Served as a safety intern for the city of Philadelphia Streets Department. Mr. Rodgers completed over 100 evaluations on the ergonomics and safety of sanitation laborers. Conducted workplace building inspections throughout Philadelphia. Reviewed and filed City of Philadelphia Accident, Injury, and Illness Reports and Motor Vehicle Accident Reports. Developed presentations and trained sanitation laborers on safe lifting. Participated in safety committee meetings with various divisions. Created and managed Emergency Information Sheets for all buildings in the Streets Department.

Education

- Millersville University
Bachelor of Science, Occupational Safety and Environmental Health (2015)